KNOCKERS ARE BUSY

H. J. Allen of Ottawa Visits GRAIN-O has that rich seal brown of Governor Stanley.

Many Rumors are Rife and New Slates are Making.

It would take an expert guesser to make Eny correct predictions on what Governor-Elect Stanley would spring on the public next. He says he is not going to do any thing until after the Populistic panorama has closed its engagement at Topeka. His time is being about evenly divided between home and office. Yesterday he was down town longer than on any other day this week, and during the day he held a consultation behind closed doors with H. J. Alien of Ottawa, who has been mentioned as a possibility for the appointment of secretary. It is not thought by very many of the politicians that Allen was ever a very duniterous possibility over Judge Myatt, who, it is said, has been offered the place by Governor Stanley. After the conference between Allen and the governor, Mr. Allen was seen and asked by an Eagle reporter whether he came to see the governor on a special mission, and he said; I came over today to talk about political matters concerning some of my Republican friends who are appdeants for office under Mr. Stanley's administration."

Mr. Alien would not disclose the names of any of his friends who wanted some of pin. Mr. Allem was then asked if he had been offered the appointment of private secretary in case Judge Myatt did not accept. He said Governor Stanley did no offer him the place or had it ever been hinted to itim that he would, "You can positively state that I have never even dreamed that such an honor would be bestowed upon me, and the first I knew that my name was being used was when I read it in the dully papers."

Mr. Allen then left for the depot, where

in the office of the governor during the after your several ladies were awaiting an sudjector. One of them was a client; anpassed out a delegation walked into the p. Trate office. They were recognized as being identified with the Children's ne in this city, and it was hinted at that they would ask the governor to recemmend in his message an appropriation for the mal stenance of the home. The institution is a worthy one and the manage. ment have I aboved under many difficulties to keep the Children's home in the front ranks of the charitable organizations of the city.

Another caller at the office who had a half hour'; talk with the governor was Syl Dunkin of Argonia. He is going to Topeka and stopped over between frains. When seen shortly after his talk, he said: "I am not an office-seeker. I am out of the race for grain inspector. I just stopped over to well the governor some things I had learned from the politicians in the western part of the state."

During the d'ay it was pretty generally scussed and a rumor is going the rounds of the political wiseacres that the knockers had got in their strongest work, and that Lit Crum had been knocked complete. ly out of the rallroad commissionership, An Eagle reporter started out to run the romer down, and found a prominent Republican politician, who said that it was a watomie), L eure thing that Lit Crum would be side tracked in the new deal that was now being hatched up by the knockers.

There are many slates still being made tory to all factional interests in the several congressional districts, and a number of getting any of the pie are now rallying

In the case of Carrie Berry vs. Albert Berry and others the opinion contains a proposition of law which will prove of general interest and new in Kansas. The statute provides that a lamilord may have 39c a yarda lien for rent upon the crop growing or made on the farm. Albert Berry rented the Berry ranch, in Morris and Chase counties and agreed in writing to pay $3009 per year for the rent thereon, which was guaranteed by sureties. The lease did not 25c a yard. prohibit sub-leasing nor provide for the right of the landlord to distrain for rent. Albert Berry sub-leased the premises to W. L. Patterson and Thomas Terry. Patterson had paid out cash for the portion | yard. of land and Terry was to pay one-third of the crop to Albert Berry as rent for the portion of the premises rented by him. The landlord brought an action for the rent against Albert Berry and attached the crops of the sub-tenants, Patterson and Terry. The disrict court of Chase county held the crops of the sub-tenants not liable to the landlord's lien for rent. This holding is reversed by the court of appeals. The court says: "Crops grown by a sub-tenant of lessee are subject to landlord's statutory lien."

This was an action brought by Mollie E. Foster against J. H. Wiggins, a constable, who had levied on certain hogs upon an execution in a judgment against her husband, E. H. Foster. The jury found to agency between the husban'l and wife and the court holds that his evidence was therefore admissable.

In the case of Edward E. Barton et al vs. W. M. Pond et al, there is this controversy; W. M. Pond recovered a judgment district court, afterward, the last trial by a jury, and a verdict was rendered for $39.80 for Pond. The question raised in the court of appeals was that the district court sat only as a justice of the peace and had no jurisdiction to render a judgment above $300. The court of appeals holds that this objection to the court's jurisdiction being raised in the appellate court for the first time comes too late. Error from Reno county.
